

The Task Force finds that legal system abuse is a significant driver of rising insurance premiums and recommends that the Legislature examine and pursue appropriate legal reforms to lessen the burden of the tort tax on Minnesotans.