

Community Water Systems – by groundwater or surface water sources

Community Water Systems that use both groundwater and surface water include Burnsville, Fergus Falls, Moorhead, and Saint Paul Regional Water Services. Mankato uses wells that are closely connected to the Minnesota River and is treated as a surface water system.